ENTRY FEE & TOURNAMENT DATES

- A. Entry fee for point tournaments is $30.00 per contestant.
- B. Carryover of entry fees, including options, shall be made only if the contestant notifies the Tournament Director, President or Treasurer by 7:30PM the Thursday before the tournament of their withdraw. Progressive Big Fish Pot will not be carried over.
- C. Carryover of entry fees and options shall only be carried over for 3 months. At the end of 3 months all rollover fees will be forfeited.
- D. If an individual officially withdraws from a tournament, they may not re-enter and fish the tournament.
- E. In most cases, entry fees, including options must be paid prior to the monthly meeting or at the monthly meeting prior to the draw for partners. There will be a 24-hour grace period from the start time of the monthly meeting to sign-up for the tournament including Options and PBFP (Progressive Big Fish Pot). After the 24-hour grace period a contestant may sign-up late up to 7:30 PM the Thursday prior to the tournament, except when the tournament is held the weekend following the meeting then late sign-ups outside the 24 hours grace are allowed without Options or PBFP up to 9:00 PM Friday night. EFFECTIVE JAN 1, 2022.
- F. Progressive Big Fish Pot (PBFP)
  - 1. Late sign-up for the PBFP with catch-up is allowed within the 24-hour grace period. No catch-up or PBFP option shall be allowed outside of the 24 hour late sign-up grace period. EFFECTIVE JAN 1, 2022.
  - 1. Late sign-ups are allowed to enter the PBFP only if they are current. No shows or withdraws will forfeit their monies in the PBFP
- G. The draw will be held at the meeting prior to the tournament.
- H. The selection of tournament dates is to be made by the tournament committee, subject to the following:
  - 1. No more than one tournament shall be held in any one month.
  - 2. The day of the tournament shall be on a Sunday but, may be a Saturday if the tournament is a two-day event or a night tournament.
  - 3. As many dates as practical shall be set in as far in advance as possible.

3.

CONTESTANT PAIRING

- A. Pairing of contestants shall be done at the meeting prior to the tournament by a draw of boaters matched with non-boaters.
  - 1. In the event the boater does not show at the tournament, the non-boater is placed in the “next available boat.”
  - 2. In the event a boat is disabled or inoperable at the tournament date, the non-boater is placed in the “next available boat.” The boater is then placed in the “next available boat.”
  - 3. Non-boaters signing up late shall be placed in the “next available boat.”
  - 4. The “next available boat” is defined as: the first boat drawn out at the meeting that does not have a non-boater at that draw.
  - 5. Boaters signing up late shall be placed at the end of the field.
  - 6. Contestants that sign up as a boater or non-boater shall remain as such for the tournament except for when there is a need for more boaters.
- B. If more “boat owners” than “non-boat owners” are entered in a tournament, the excess of boat owners shall be allowed to fish alone in their own boat, or with immediate family (father, mother, husband, wife, son, daughter, brother, or sister) who is an active member of FBC.
- C. Any member may fish FBC tournaments with his or her immediate family who is also an active FBC member, and not be subject to the draw pairing. Such pairs shall be entered into the boat-owners draw only to determine their position in blast-off.
- D. Paired contestants must stay together throughout the tournament.
- E. A member signing up with a family member without going through the draw process must show up and participate together for the duration of tournament (both days if a two-day tournament.) If either family member fails to show up for any reason, both members will have “one strike” against them (no exceptions.) If this should happen again in the same tournament season/year, both members will have a “second strike” against them. Upon receiving the “second strike,” both members will forfeit their option of fishing together without going through the draw process for the balance of that tournament season/year. If either member wished to drop out at any time, both members must drop out together or be subject to the “two strikes rule.”

- F. Family member with late sign up – once the draw is completed the pairing remains as is.
- G. Deny of draw partner – contestant may deny 1st draw however, must maintain 2nd draw partner or not fish the tournament.
- H. Buddy Tournament at Clear Lake, non-boaters that do not partner up will go into the draw

4. WEIGH-IN

- A. First 3 boats (6 contestants) shall be responsible for assisting with weigh-in. This is not an option without permission from the Tournament Director or a 1-pound penalty will apply.
  - 1. 1st boat is the weighmaster.
  - 2. It is the responsibility of participating contestants to check in with the weighmaster at the designated check in time.
  - 3. During a two-day tournament, the same weigh-in crew will help with the weigh-in both days.
- B. No contestant in any point tournament shall allow any fish caught by him/her to be included in the tournament weight of any other contestant. The contestants involved in this infraction shall be disqualified and dismissed from the FRESNO BASS CLUB.
- C. All boats must be within the designated weigh-in location prior to quitting time and report to the check-in boat. The check-in boat will be designated by the tournament director prior to the start of the tournament. Any contestant arriving late for the weigh-in, or not reporting to the check-in boat, is disqualified, regardless of the time period involved. The contestant shall be entitled to participation points. It is the responsibility of both contestants to be at the weigh-in prior to the designated time.
- D. Culling of fish must be done outside of buoys of weigh-in area.
- E. Any contestant bringing more than the designated tournament limit to weigh-in will have their catch culled to the correct limit starting with the largest fish in the catch. In addition, one pound penalty will be awarded for each fish over the limit.

5. LAKE HEADQUARTERS & “OUT-OF-BOUNDS” AREA

- A. Lake headquarters shall be selected by the tournament committee.
- B. The official weigh-in station shall be at the lake headquarters unless circumstances deem it necessary to be elsewhere. This exception shall be at the discretion of the tournament committee.
- C. The “out-of-bounds” area shall be designated by the tournament director at the club meeting and at the tournament blast-off.
- D. All fishing shall be done from the boat.

6. TOURNAMENT CHECK-IN TIME, FISHING HOURS & STARTING PROCEDURES

- A. Check-in time and weigh-in shall be determined by the tournament director and announced at the draw.
- B. The tournament director shall give the official time at the pre-tournament meeting and prior to blast-off.
- C. The tournament committee shall determine the method of starting except:
  - 1. No “flare” or “shotgun” starts shall be allowed.
  - 2. The order of starting or positioning of boats within flights shall be determined by the order in which boats are drawn at the meeting. For the second day of a two-day tournament the order shall be reversed.
  - 3. The prime consideration in determining the method of starting shall be the safety of all contestants.
- D. In the event a member or members arrive at the lake late, it will be necessary for the late arrivals to have their live wells checked by a tournament committee or board member they can locate on the lake. A contacted member shall check the late boat and then the late arrivals may proceed to fish. To begin fishing before contacting a member boat for a live-well check is automatic disqualification, including loss of participation point.

- E. Any boater or non-boater who causes his or her boater or non-boater or themselves to be late for morning check-in will be assessed a 1-pound penalty against his or her total weight of that day's tournament catch.
  - 1. Late will be defined as not being checked in at the stated and printed time at the designated area for that tournament. Check-in applies to all tournament participants (boaters and non-boaters.)
- F. Contestant shall not be deemed late if the contestant notifies the tournament director or president by 9:00PM the Wednesday before the tournament. No penalty shall be assessed.
- G. Contestants that are granted late start shall be last in the blast off.
